

Bank of Singapore opens doors to new opportunities.
Start your career with Bank of Singapore as a Rotational Marketing Associate.

At Bank of Singapore, we are constantly on the lookout for exceptional individuals to join our Front Office team. We promote a culture of openness, teamwork and fairness. Most importantly, we invest in our people through our programmes that develop them on both professional and personal levels. Besides attractive remuneration packages, we offer non-financial benefits and opportunities to develop your potential within OCBC Group's global network of subsidiaries and offices. If you have passion, drive and the will to succeed, rise to the challenge today!

Overview

The aim of the program is to develop an internal talent pool of analysts to provide administrative and client service support to Relationship Managers (RM) within the front office function servicing Private Banking clients.

Analysts will first undergo a structured training program for 8 weeks before they are assigned to various Front Office teams on a rotational basis. Training will include preparation for CACS exams and being RNF certified. The analysts may be permanently placed within the Front Office team depending on the suitability of their profiles. Through the trainings and rotations, the analysts will be equipped to deliver top-notch service to our clients.
